“Making Cabernet Sauvignon is like coming home every night to the best black Labrador you’d ever owned. No matter how long you’d been gone, or how late it was, the dog - tail wagging - was thrilled to see you. Making Pinot Noir was like coming home to the worst cat. The cat would look at you as if to say, Where the hell have you been?”

“A man who was fond of wine was offered some grapes
At dessert after dinner. ‘Much obliged,’ said he, pushing the dish away from him’

But I am not in the habit of taking my wine in pills”

Jean Anthelme Brillat-Savarin

The Caballo Loco Story

In the early 1990's, one of the owners of Valdivieso Vineyard, didn't know what to do with all of the "leftovers" of their very best Single Vineyard Reserve wines. These "leftovers" are the result of filling the tanks to the top to avoid any oxygen that can ruin wine. What do we do with all of this great "leftover" wine? That is when one of the owners had a crazy idea. Let's take these "leftovers" and blend them. This man's nickname is Caballo Loco (Crazy Horse). 50% of this first blend was bottled and named Caballo Loco Number One. The other 50% was reserved. The following year, the "leftovers" were again blended. That blend was blended with the 50% of Caballo Loco Number One that was reserved. The result was Caballo Loco Number Two. 50% of Caballo Loco Number Two was bottled and 50% was reserved to blend with the following year's "leftovers." Each year this process is repeated. The Caballo Loco wine is highly rated and has won many awards. The Herr Tavern & Publick House is proud to offer this beautiful wine.

If all be true that I do think,
There are five reasons we should drink:
Good wine— a friend— or being dry—
Or lest we should be by and by—
Or any other reason why.

--Henry Aldrich (1647–1710)
